

OUR NUMBERS

September 2014 - August 2015

The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America actively promotes our national heritage through historic preservation, patriotic service and educational projects.

Marcy Moody
National President

National Headquarters
Washington, DC

15,187

Members (as of June 2015)

44

Corporate Societies

MUSEUM PROPERTIES

Advises and aids in the interpretation, restoration, and maintenance of the Corporate Society properties with the purpose of educating all people to the properties' historical significance.

80+

owned and affiliated properties

30,000+

artifacts, artworks, objects

210,000+ visitors

including 60,000+ children

800+

museum volunteers

$1.9m+ grant awards received
$1.4m spent for preservation
$120,000+ spent for artifact conservation
$250,000 spent for cultural landscapes

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Works primarily in the field of education to stimulate a spirit of true patriotism and a knowledge of the American heritage in citizens and others.

6,600+
military personnel and families served

$120,000+
in scholarships awarded

3,000+
new citizens welcomed

52
Congressional Seminar
students

1,500+
participants in flag programs

HISTORICAL ACTIVITIES

Works in the fields of research, preservation, restoration, and education.

5,400+
program participants

15,000+
Ancestor Bibliography
Register online searches

4,000+
Sampler Survey online sessions and 350 new records added

Data were collected by National Headquarters through the Strategic Planning Committee's Data Impact Collection Surveys and through NSCDA.org Google Analytics reports. The Strategic Planning Committee is chaired by Sally Congdon and is made up of members from the National Board.