ESSAY RULES & INFORMATION

The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America is pleased to offer this amazing opportunity to high school students!

The essay topic for 2019 is:

“What do you think the authors of the Bill of Rights intended the Second Amendment to mean? Do you think it is being interpreted correctly today?”

- Deadline December 1, 2018, postmark or by time/dated email.
- We welcome essays from 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students!
- If students are participating as part of a class or school project, please note that all students must submit an individual application form and essay.
- Students may enter online or send hard copies via USPS mail. Complete the online Application. Save (see below) or download/print the form. If completing form by hand, take care to make all information readable.
- Essays (750 words or less, excluding topic/title and sources) must be typed, double-spaced and printed on one side of paper only. A cover page is strongly encouraged. The student's name and State should be on each page of the essay.
- The title of the essay must be the same as the essay topic. The topic must not be altered in any way.
- SAVE all essays as .PDF or Word .DOC; NAME your files: State + student's Last Name+ Essay or Application. As an example: if applying from Maryland the file would be: "MDSmithEssay.doc or MDSmithApp.pdf"
- Email or USPS mail essays with application to the local/State NSCDA Congressional Essay Chair or Patriotic Service Chair as directed or send to: Dames@NSCDA.org.
- If you do not have a Colonial Dame contact in your State please contact Dames@NSCDA.org to obtain the address for submission. Reference Essay Contest as subject of the email and give your name, city and state.
- Students submitting by paper should send their application form plus 3 copies of their essay.
- If more than five students are entering the contest online from one school, please also USPS mail a copy of each essay to your Colonial Dame contact.
