When Adam and Eve came forth from Eden, the serpent beguiled them with his wiles. Adam took the fruit and Eve ate some of it; and then they both knew that they were naked, and they sewed fig leaves together and made garments to cover their nakedness.

The Lord's prayer

Lord's prayer

Father of all in heaven and earth, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom and thy will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

This is one lovely rose
So rare as beauties rare
Its sweet refreshing fragrances show
Its original divine.
My God, the steps of my feet Are ordered by thy will.
No other should I call to help again.
Thy hand support them still.
Shall the path of heavenly truth
And glory in my choice
Not all the riches of the earth
Could make me so rejoice.

As the first effort of an infant hand
And while my fingers on the Canvas move
Engage my tender thoughts to seek thy love
With thy dear Children let me have a part
And write thy Name thy self upon my heart

"On Education"

The Education: Idem is by youthful mind,
Just as the long is bent the tree inclin'd,
As Gems rough no Lathe can imprint,
Till polished and refined by using Art.
So untaught youth we very rarely find,
Display the duce of Beauty of the mind,
Till art and science are with Nature joint.

Hannah Janney, the mother of Emma Hopkins 1785

Eliza Hopkins, 1810.
On Education

The Education forms the youthful mind
Just as the bow is bent the tree inclines
An diamond rough no finer can import
'Til polished and improved by wisdom's art
So ought we by wise words to show the duties of the mind
Till art and science are with pleasure join'd

How blest the maid who on her young Eyes open round her God's Object of her purest love
Useful hours successively
As she gazed the Book the People and the Pen divide who Saw her parents heart exult
With joy and the fold team
Stand sparkling in their eye
One did commending to a Fairy Young
Thad had a Spanish and a Tawny Tongue
She kindled in his Heart a Love true
But thought too much for her he learned as my Life but he learned as a Wiser.
