Patience will wipe away the streaming tear
And hope will paint the pale cheek of fear
Content will always happiness supply
And virtue call a blessing from on high

Verse from Psalm 27: "As you have desired, so will you hear the desire of my heart; to hide myself in the shadow of your wings will be my delight, under the overshadowing of your wings I will rejoice. I will whisper to you in the hidden place of your heart, and in the secret chamber of your soul." 1978

Next unto God dear Parents I address
Myself to you in humble thankfulness
For all your care and charge on me bestow'd
The means of learning unto me allow'd
Go on I pray and let me still perseve
These golden arts the wiser never knew

When we devote our youth to God
Tis pleasing in his eyes,
A flower when offered in the bud
Is no vain sacrifice.

To Providence resign the rest

Tell me ye knowing and discerning few
Where I may find a friend both firm and true
Who dares stand by me when in deep distress
And then his Love and friendship most express

Early your thoughts to Virtue bend
Forgive your foe and love your friend
