ELIGIBILITY • Participants must currently be in their sophomore, junior or senior year of high school during the time of the program. Exceptions will only be made under extraordinary circumstances.

ITINERARY CHANGES • Although changes are not expected some activities or program days may be adjusted or modified due to availability or schedule conflicts.

USE OF QUOTES, VIDEO AND PHOTOGRAPHY • Washington Workshops reserves the right to use photographs, video or participant quotes (written and spoken) from the program to be used for promotional or training purposes.

RESPONSIBILITY • The Washington Workshops foundation, NSCDA, partnering tour operators and staff shall not be held liable or responsible for (a) any damages to or loss of property during the seminar; and (B) any illness, accident, dismemberment or death during the seminar. The participant waves any claims against The Washington Workshops foundation, its staff and partnering tour operators for any such damage or loss.

SEMINAR STANDARDS • Each participant and his or her parent or legal guardian must agree to the following disclaimer upon admittance to the program: I understand that the Washington Workshops congressional seminar is an academic program and the highest level of behavior is required and expected. I will fully read, understand, agree to and will sign the seminar standards which will be included in the information packet that each student will receive shortly after enrollment. I fully understand that violation of seminar standards may result in my removal from the program and that all costs associated with removal or separation from the group will be my and/or my parent or guardian's financial responsibility. Seminar standards are posted on our website at www.workshops.org or contact our office at 1-800-368-5688 to have a copy mailed to you.

Participants are liable for any property damage to the housing facility they may incur during residence.
