

- Letters of appreciation to VA hospital patients
- Holiday meal and playing cards for patients in the VA trauma unit
- Packages and letters to active duty troops
- Letters from school children for troops from their county
- Collections of supplies identified by local VA outpatient center
- Wreaths for a church's Memorial Day service
- Operation Ball Gown: Dames sent dresses to be worn by military wives at a welcome home ball for soldiers
- Books for children and adults sent to airports' USO lounges
- Sponsorship of summer youth volunteers at VA hospital
- Assembly of wreaths for Wreaths Across America, work with several hundred junior and senior high school students to place wreaths on 1,400 graves, ending in a candlelight service during the holidays.
- ROTC scholarships to programs at local universities
- Care packages and reception for veterans and caregivers at local VA
- Homemade Christmas stockings filled with goodies sent overseas, to overseas, to local VA hospitals, and to transition facilities.
- Financial support to patient care funds at local veteran hospitals
- Support for a new 6 bedroom residence for female vets through Delaware's Home of the Brave project
- Swing dance band and dinner provided at an Armed Forces retirement home
- Wreath provided for outdoor ceremony each Memorial Day at Women in Military Service for America \(WIMSA\) Memorial
- Support for new WIMSA museum, including uniforms worn by Dames who have served in the military
- Support for Fisher House, a network of homes where military and veterans' families can stay at no cost while a loved one is receiving treatment
- Coordination of donations of airline frequent flyer miles to soldiers and families
- Collection of discount coupons that are accepted at overseas Post Exchanges (PX)
- Collection of international phone cards
- Annual support for weekly bus service to transport veterans to doctors' appointments
- Funds raised to help with area military base's "Families in Distress" needs
- Cards and goody bags provided by children to wounded soldiers followed by visits to the school by those same soldiers, sharing stories and showing the importance of honoring the military
- Collaboration with Girl Scouts to send cookies to deployed troops
- Donation of toys to children of deployed Marines
- No Dough Dinners provided in conjunction with other service organizations four times a year to troops at the end of pay periods
- Building of a shelter to protect families from inclement weather as memorial services are conducted at a military cemetery
- Attendance at local Veterans Day celebrations
- Support for "families left behind" by deployed service men and women
- Organized a story telling program for children of service men and women

